Arms. Argent, a bar azure between three peacocks' heads-proper.
Crest. A peacock's head, erased; proper.

"JOHN AND NATHANIEL MERRILL, brothers, came from Salisbury County, Wilts, England, to Ipswich, Mass., in 1633, and settled at Newbury in the same colony among the first settlers of that town. They are descended from the Huguenot family of DeMerle who escaped to England after the St. Bartholomew Day (Aug. 1572). This Family of DeMerle belonged to the Auvergne nobility having had its ancestral estate near Place-de-Dombes in that province. The emigrant made use of the arms we give which are different (although the crest is the same) from the Merrill Arms as given by the English works of heraldry."

"We have seen imprints of the seal of one of the emigrant's grandsons* affixed to a deed dated 1726. The devices were exactly those we give." (From America Heraldica.)

*THOMAS MERRILL, (ABEL, NATHANIEL.)

RECORD OF ONE LINE OF THE MERRILL FAMILY. .

(The numbers denote the Generation, the original immigrant counted as first.)

JOHN MERRILL¹ and NATHANIEL MERRILL¹, brothers, first came in 1633 from Salisbury, Wilts County, England, to Ipswich, Mass., and were in Newbury, Mass., in 1634, as charter members of the town. John died Sept. 12, 1673, and by his wife, Elizabeth, who died July 14, 1682, had only one child, Hannah, born in England, who married Stephen Swett, May 24, 1647, and died April 4, 1662.

NATHANIEL MERRILL¹, of Newbury, born about 1610, died March 16, 1654, married Susannah Wilterton. Their children were John², born 1635, Nathaniel², 1638; Abraham², Susannah², Daniel², August 20, 1642; Abel², Feb. 20, 1644. The widow¹ of Nathaniel married a Mr. Jordan.

(It is to be noted that the five sons of Nathaniel¹ had twenty-two sons, thus giving the family a vigorous start. They were in all parts of New England at an early date.)

JOHN MERRILL², when young, moved to Hartford, Conn., with Gregory Wilterton, and when the latter died John inherited much of his estate. John Merrill² married Sept. 23, 1663, Sarah Watson, the daughter of the first John Watson of Hartford, 1644. John Merrill² owned a lot in Hartford in 1657, and when he died, July 18, 1712, all his eight sons were living. RECORD OF ONE LINE OF THE CLIFT FAMILY.

Ancestors of Esther and Eunice Clift, who married Guy C.
Merrill, and of Lucy Clift, who married Roswell T. Merrill.

¹WILLIAM CLIFT was put ashore at Scituate, Mass., when but seven years of age. Tradition says that he was sent from England by his relatives, because he was heir to an estate which they would inherit in case of his death; this tradition is handed down through Pero, an old negro in the family, who died Jan. 28, 1807, age 81. He knew the first generation and told it to the fifth.

¹WILLIAM CLIFT married Nov. 25, 1691, Lydia ³Wills, (1674, July 1, 1761), the daughter of Samuel ²Wills, the son of William Wills; the first of the name in Scituate. He lived on Will's Island and died 1688, age 90, leaving his farm to his son Samuel. The children of William ¹Clift and Lydia (Wills) Clift were: Lydia, July 13, 1697; William, April 30, 1700; Samuel, Oct. 22, 1709; Joseph, 1712; Mary, July 6, 1714. Their dates are obtained from Scituate and Marshfield records. Probably there were other children. William ¹Clift died Oct. 17, 1722.

SAMUEL CLIFT² (1709, 1794), married in 1732, Lydia Dogget⁵ (1713, 1790). They lived at Marshfield until about 1747, and then went to Plainfield, Conn. Their children were : Rhoda³ 1st, (Aug. 29, 1737, Dec. 22, 1737.) Rhoda³ 2nd, (Apr. 29, 1735, Sept. 5, 1739). Amos³ (Sept. 20, 1737, July 29, 1806), Mary³ (Oct. 7, 1738, July 19, 1781), Lemuel³ (Apr. 20, 1740, Feb. 14, 1741), Waterman³ (Dec. 28, 1741), Bethia³ (Feb. 21, 1744, Feb. 5, 1795), Wills³ June 18, 1745, April 29, 1810), Deborah³ (June 6, 1749, died young), Joseph³ (Sept. 13, 1750, May 9, 1827), Lemuel³ 2nd (Oct. 10, 1755, Sept. 13, 1821). The last three were born in Plainfield, the others in Marshfield. Samuel Clift² died Aug. 22, 1794, at the home of his son Amos³, and was buried beside his wife Lydia near the south wall of the old burying ground in Plainfield, Conn. Lemuel³, Waterman³ and Wills³ were Majors and Joseph³ was a private soldier in the Revolutionary War. One of them was in the battle of Lexington.

AMOS CLIFT³ (1737, 1806), married Feb. 12, 1761, Mary Coit⁴ (born 1739, died July 20, 1790), daughter of Joseph Coit³, Jr., and Mary (Spaulding) Coit, daughter of Benjamin Spaulding.
